

Mission

"Providing innovative, competitive and high standards of education and health services considering the requirements of the society and the country by using advanced health and educational technologies in order to educate good individual and physician and conduct researches for health promotion and prevention"

Vision

"To reach the status of a well recognised and preferred institute, proud to be a member of, at the national and international arena with the training and research capabilities and health care services, in which pioneers working for health promotion are trained"